Donate to Survivors of the California Fires

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 19, 2018 -- The burning Camp Fire in Butte County is the deadliest in California history. As of November 18, 2018, The Sacramento Bee reports 77 fatalities and 993 people still missing.

APAPA Headquarters is located in the city of Sacramento. To help our California community, we are requesting donations to aid fire survivors.

California Volunteers, the state agency that oversees volunteer efforts says financial contributions are the best way to help. Butte County officials are now asking for all donations to be in monetary form.

To avoid charity scams, APAPA recommends these direct service providers:

Donate directly to help Northern California Camp Fire victims:

- North Valley Community Foundation (www.nvcf.org)
- The Salvation Army in Northern California (www.deloro.salvationarmy.org)

Donate to general California Fire relief:

- American Red Cross (www.redcross.org/donate)
- Text CAWILDFIRES to 90999 to donate $10

If you are interested in providing temporary housing for displaced neighbors and disaster relief workers, please sign up your home here:

Our thoughts remain with all those affected by these fires. We'd like to thank you for your generosity and support.
